Order No. 03

Dated the 8th February 2012

This habeas corpus has been filed by the petitioner Sunita Kerketa alleging therein that her husband Ramdas Minz was arrested on 21st January 2012 when the people held 'Dharna' with regard to construction of primary health center, alongwith other persons and was kept in police lock-up without any rhyme and reason and, therefore, his custody being illegal, he should be released from jail immediately.

In the counter affidavit, filed on behalf of the State it is interalia stated that the petitioner was arrested on 23rd January 2012 in connection with Bhandaria P.S. Case No. 5/2012, in which several police personnels were killed in mine blast and the petitioner had active role in the said blast.

In reply, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he can show that he was arrested on 21st January 2012 and was kept in police lock-up for about two days before producing him to the Magistrate.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, we are not inclined to pass any further order in this writ petition except observing that the petitioner may raise all the points available to him before the learned court below.

This writ petition thus stands disposed of.
